

A Tale of Two Lodges

Capella Lodge | Southern Ocean Lodge

Glimpsed through turning propellers from the aeroplane window

The vast rugged beauty of Kangaroo Island seen first from above unfolds like a patchwork quilt

Lord Howe Island first appears rising from the vast sweep of blue green ocean

Lush green paddocks dotted with white woolly sheep border unending sweeps of untouched wilderness

Alight at the lagoon-side airstrip lined with green lawns and white picket fences Kentia palms fan swaying gently in greeting

Where kangaroos roam, koalas rest and the echidna finds a warm spot in the gentle sun

Follow the curve of the reef's crescent where glistening waters hint at a kaleidoscope of marine life below

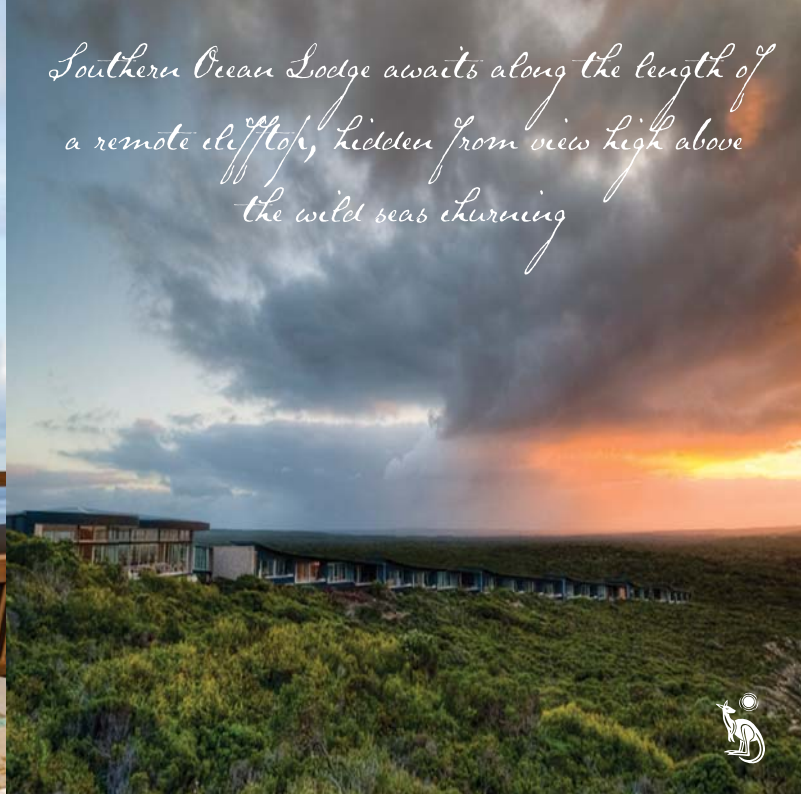

Australian sea lions surf in the icy blue Southern Ocean and while away hours on white sand beaches

Capella Lodge rests in the crook of the rise at the foot of the imperious twin mountain peaks

Southern Ocean Lodge awaits along the length of a remote cliff top, hidden from view high above the wild seas churning

Where clouds and seabirds fly in and out evoking the thrilling childhood fantasy of magic.

A haven of welcome luxury, it's a moment of retreat a breath catching acknowledgement of nature's beauty.

A scenic view of the Capella Lodge on Lord Howe Island. The lodge is a modern building with a white facade and a large wooden deck, nestled among lush green palm trees and tropical vegetation. In the background, a large, rugged mountain rises above a turquoise beach and the ocean. The sky is clear and blue.

Capella Lodge

The gentle cool season on Lord Howe Island offers the chance to rediscover the mystery and magic of this treasure island, lost in time. Plump cows munch contentedly on green slopes rolling to the sea, shimmering reef waters beckon as a circus of marine life, corals, fish and turtles celebrate in the warm Coral Sea currents. White-sanded beaches invite a gentle stroll, combing for seashells. It's the perfect occasion to take time out and take it easy. Discover the childlike thrill of circumnavigating the island on a bike, walk out on the
